Economic Cooperation Organization

January, 2026- No. 17

Dear Readers,

As we step into January 2026, we take a moment to reflect on 2025 - a year marked by consistent progress and revitalized collaboration in the region under the ECO framework. Throughout 2025, the Organization moved forward with important initiatives focused on deepening regional partnerships, broadening sustainability-oriented programs, and achieving tangible results. These successes were driven by the shared dedication of our member states and partners.

In 2025, we convened five ministerial meetings, as well as the 17th ECO Summit which was a truly path-breaking event for ECO, thanks to the leadership shown by the Republic of Azerbaijan in organizing the first ever ECO Week as part of the Summit process. We also commend Kazakhstan not only for its able stewardship of the Organization in 2025, but also for the energy, dedication and personal engagement brought to our work throughout the year by Amb. Ontalap Onalbayev. For this, I extend my deep appreciation to Kazakhstan.

A major milestone as we begin 2026 is the transfer of the ECO Chairmanship from Kazakhstan to Pakistan for the next two years under the new arrangement approved by the Member States; a change that is expected to enhance coherence, efficiency, and impact of ECO's initiatives. I warmly congratulate Pakistan on assuming the Chairmanship of the Council. I am confident that ECO will make significant progress under Pakistan's stewardship given its long-standing record of commitment and distinguished contributions to ECO. The Secretariat assures Amb. Muhammad Mudassir Tipu, the Permanent Representative of Pakistan, of its full support and cooperation in this regard.

In January, the 7th High-Level Working Group on Disaster Risk Reduction, followed by the 10th Ministerial Meeting on DRR was convened in Pakistan. The 303rd session of the CPR also took place, where members discussed the implementation of the AWAZA Programme of Action. Furthermore, the ECO-CCI held its 20th General Assembly and 30th Executive Committee Meetings in Karachi, Pakistan, highlighting the important role of the private sector in driving economic growth and regional development.

Looking ahead, we have received commitments and indications from Member States for convening 11 ministerial meetings during 2026 which I believe is historic in itself. This would clearly make 2026 a year focused on action and results. Building on our earlier work, ECO will in the new year prioritize high-impact projects, improved regional connectivity, and stronger collaboration in areas such as sustainable development, trade, energy, and environmental resilience.

We thank all member states, partners, and stakeholders for their continued support and look forward to a successful year under Pakistan's leadership.
